

MACHINE READABLE PASSPORT

All applications for visas must be accompanied by a valid machine readable passport. Manual written passports or manual extended passports will not be accepted for travel to South Africa anymore. This is also applicable to visa exempted passport holders who must be in possession of a machine readable passport when travelling to South Africa.